2. According to a German woman who formerly worked in the restricted area and was still in contact with several Soviet officers, six generals live and work in the restricted area, the surnames of all officers are kept strictly secret, Doris is the first name of a general residing on Astern Street. Senior Lieutenant Tsaf (sic), liaison officer between the generals and the population, is the only officer who is in contact with civilians. A staff officer said that recruits of regimental strength arrived in the restricted area between 7 and 15 October. **
